

A large white truck is shown in motion, blurred to convey speed. It is traveling on a road that stretches into the distance under a twilight sky with soft blue and purple hues. The truck's headlights and side mirrors are visible, though blurred.

Underinsurance

(Section 1 – Loss or Damage to Your Insured Property) is subject to an underinsurance/average condition. The effect of this condition is that if at the time of loss the Sum Insured is less than Your Insured Property's Market Value, then You may not be covered for Your full loss. It is Your responsibility to ensure the adequacy of the Sum Insured and You should reassess the Sum Insured during the currency of the Policy and prior to the renewal of Your Policy each year.

Cost of the Insurance

Policy Excess

An Excess is the first part of a claim that You must contribute and is payable for each and every claim covered by the Policy. The Excess(es) is payable per item of Insured Property per claim unless otherwise shown on Your Schedule. The standard and additional Excess(es) are shown in this Policy or otherwise are shown on Your Schedule.

There may be other Excess(es) that apply to Optional Endorsements or conditions. These Excess(es), if applicable, will be shown in the applicable wording of this Policy or in Your Schedule.

We may choose to waive the Excess in certain circumstances where We deem You are not at fault for the Accident. For the waiver to apply:

We may refuse to pay Your claim if You have not paid Your Excess(es). We may reduce or refuse Your claim to the extent that We have been prejudiced by this failure to pay.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Excess Waiver does not apply to Mobile Plant.

We shall sell the remains of the Insured Property and deal with the proceeds of the sale as follows:
